RG104 E-1 Box 125 Oct-Dec 1881

P

Treasury Department,

OFFICE OF THE SECRETARY,

Washington, D. C., November 9th 1881

2188

Superintendent

United States Mint,

Philadelphia, Pa.

Sir:

Referring to your letter of the 27th ultimo reporting upon the advisability of receiving old minor coins from the Treasurer of the United States and Assistant Treasurer at Philadelphia in ex=change for the minor coins now being issued, and suggesting that before any further transfers are made to you for this purpose the old coins now on hand at the Mint be first disposed of at such times in the future as will least interfere with the general operations, you are informed that such action will meet the approval of the Department.

It is desirable, however, to have the old coins ex=changed for coins fit for circulation without unnecessary delay, and I will thank you to advise the Treasurer of the

RG104 E-1 Box 125 Oct-Dec 1881

the United States from time to time as you are able to make such exchange, and also the Assistant Treasurer in your city when you will be ready to receive them from his office.

Very respectfully,

J K Upton

Assistant Secretary.

RG104 E-1 Box 125 Oct-Dec 1881

1056

Treasury Department
Wash. D.C.
Nov. 9/81

J. K. Upton
Asst Secretary

Approves Supt's letter of Oct 27/81
That Treas. U.S. and Asst Treas. at Phila should be advised whenever an exchange can be made of old minor coins for new.

O. L. B.
#12
p. 242
& 307

Rec'd Nov. 10th 1881.

NARA RG104, Entry 1, Box 125

[Abstract:] Approves Supt's letter of Oct. 27 /81… 1056

E.B.D.

P

Treasury Department,
Office of the Secretary,
Washington, D.C.,
November 9, 1881

Superintendent
United States Mint,
Philadelphia, Pa.

Sir:

Referring to your letter of the 27th ultimo reporting upon the advisability of receiving old minor coins from the Treasurer of the United States and Assistant Treasurer at Philadelphia in exchange for the minor coins now being issued, and suggested that before any further transfers are made to you for this purpose the old coins now on hand at the Mint be first disposed of at such times in the future as will least interfere with the general operations, you are informed that such action will meet the approval of the Department.

It is desirable, however, to have the old coins exchanged for coins fit for circulation without unnecessary delay, and I will thank you to advise the Treasurer of the United States from time to time as you are able to make such exchange, and also the Assistant Treasurer in your city when you will be ready to receive them from his office.

Very respectfully,
J.K. Upton
Assistant Secretary